

Citizen Response to Active Threat Training Course

What do you do if suddenly faced with an active threat? Run? Hide? Fight? The Portage Police Department can provide this essential no-cost training to individual groups, businesses, or organizations interested in making every second count and being prepared if faced with an active threat. We can provide safety assessments, scene awareness, and practical exercises tailored to your needs. Please call the Portage Police Department at (608) 742-2174 and ask for Assistant Chief Richard Hoege or email richard.hoege@portagewi.gov
